

Sermon Notes

November 13, 2022 --- ROMANS 8 – Praying When You Don't Understand

THREE TRUTHS FROM LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

Life is _____. This _____ is not all there is. We have _____.

Sometimes life in this world doesn't make _____. And we realize that we are not humanly _____ of handling everything that comes our way, nor are we _____ of understanding all the _____ why things happen the way they do.

The Spirit _____ us in our _____.

When we are burdened down with a _____, the Holy Spirit helps _____ the _____.

When we don't know what to _____ for as we ought, the Spirit _____ over, and He _____ for us.

"When you have no _____ to pray, the Spirit steps in. And when human _____ proves insufficient, the _____ of the Spirit does not." (Tim Keller)

I need to be reminded every single day that I'm not doing this _____ of _____ alone.

The Father and the Holy Spirit have perfect _____ with each other.

We actually have two _____: _____ is sitting at the right hand of the Father, and He is always _____ on our behalf, defending us from all _____ that might be brought against us. And then we have an _____ in our hearts: The _____ who prays on our behalf with the very _____ that the Father needs to hear.

You don't have to _____ everything that's going on in your life.

God isn't _____ you in the struggles you face.

God is _____ you.

"Sometimes you've got to hang on to _____ with everything you've got. And sometimes _____ hangs on to you."

Scripture for Today: Romans 8:26-27... Genesis 3:17... Romans 8:31...