

Sermon Notes

November 6, 2022 --- ROMANS 8 – The Hope of Glory

A little _____ can cause a person to make it through even the most _____ circumstances.

There is a _____ laid up for us in heaven.

This _____ is a _____ that is so certain of what is hoped for that it is marked not with a _____ mark, but an _____ point.

The hope that Peter writes about in 1 Peter 1:3 is called a _____ hope.

God promises to satisfy our every _____ with _____.

We _____ because we've been given a taste of _____

We _____ because we are _____, but not _____.

Our bodies know they can't go to _____ this way. So we are waiting for full _____.

All this stuff you feel today; all the struggles you go through today; one day, it will all be _____.

Scripture for Today: Romans 8:17-25... Jeremiah 29:11... 1 Peter 1:3...
2 Corinthians 4:7-9... Psalm 81:10-16...